Lightweight Champion's Best and Most Earnest Efforts Fail to Beat Back New York's Young Contender

FIERCELY, BUT LEONARD WINS

Youth, Speed and Stamina of Local Contender Gain Him Decision.

ONLY TWO ROUNDS GO TO WORLD'S CHAMPION

Preddie Welsh, the world's lightweight champion, fought like a real champion against Benny Leonard, his youthful challenger, in a great ten round bout in Washington Park last night, but youth and speed told and at the end Leonard had a lead on points. The champion completely changed his usual tactics and fought a fierce, aggressive bout through-

Up to the fifth round Leonard had a clear lead on points. Cutting loose and fighting like a buildog in the sixth, Welsh turned the tide and punished the challenger severely. It was the same thing in the seventh, and it looked as if Welsh was on the way to victory. But Freddle slowed up in the eighth and Leonard outboxed him. The ninth was even, but youth told in the final tenth round finish and Leonard took the round and fight.

At 10:20 P. M. Welsh forced his way through the crowd. The champion was accompanied by Charlie Rose, Kid Black, Old Bud Lewis and Manager Harry Pollock. The champion scarcely drew a handelap. Leonard followed closely on his rival's heels and was greeted approartiously. George Engle, Frank Klaus's old manager; Billy Gibson and Charley Leonard, brother of the challenger, were in Benny's corner.

LENOX OVAL CONTESTS.

Two games that most likely will draw a big gathering of Cubans to Lenox Oval, it is the street and Lenox avenue, are booked for to-morrow. The Long Branch Cubans will meet the Cuban Reds, a local Cuban nine, in the first game of a double header, and Billy Jordan's Bronx Athletics in the second game. In the sunset tilt to-morrow, Harlem fans will be treated to a pitching duel, as Walsh, Fordham star hurler, will be pitted against Munoz, who has won seventeen out of eighteen games, his only defeat being suffered at the hands of the Brooklyn National League team.
